Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law seeks a qualified individual to serve as a Visiting Assistant Professor of Law during academic year 2018-19. The position is a 10-month visiting position beginning in the summer of 2018.

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching two courses, one per semester. Both courses are subject to negotiation, based on the curricular needs of the Law School and the interests of the candidate. The successful candidate will thus have ample time to focus on scholarship and be afforded access to the Law School's library and related resources. Past Visiting Assistant Professors of Law at Villanova have found great success in legal academia.

Villanova is a Catholic university sponsored by the Augustinian order. Diversity and inclusion have been and will continue to be an integral component of Villanova University's mission. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and seeks candidates who understand, respect and can contribute to the University's mission and values.

Duties and Responsibilities

- * Teach one course in the Fall 2018 semester and one course in the Spring 2019 semester.
- * Engage in scholarly research, publication, and related scholarly activities.

Minimum Qualifications
