Position Summary

Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law seeks an outstanding lawyer-educator to direct and teach its Civil Justice Clinic as a Visiting Assistant Professor, Visiting Associate Professor, or Visiting Professor during academic year 2018-2019. The Clinic represents low-income clients in a range of civil disputes, in areas such as family law, housing, employment, government benefits, and consumer claims. The position is a 12-month, visiting position beginning on June 1, 2018 and the successful VAP may apply for the permanent position when it is advertised.

Villanova is a Catholic university sponsored by the Augustinian order. Diversity and inclusion have been and will continue to be an integral component of Villanova University's mission. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and seeks candidates who understand, respect, and can contribute to the University's mission and values.

Duties and Responsibilities

- * Teach clinic classes focused on lawyering skills, professional development, and ethical practice, employing clinical teaching methods.
- * Supervise all aspects of student practice, employing clinical teaching pedagogy in the Civil Justice Clinic, and serve as the attorney of record in Clinic cases.
- * Oversee all aspects of administration of the Civil Justice Clinic, including but not limited to conducting outreach to clients, selecting cases, reporting to funding sources, and maintaining files.

Minimum Qualifications

- * JD required.
- * Pennsylvania bar membership (or an ability to waive into the Pennsylvania bar) is required.
