United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work in the United States.

Responsibilities:

The position involves teaching both undergraduate and graduate-level courses in real estate and/or related business topics. Faculty members are expected to employ a variety of teaching strategies to enable students to think analytically and to communicate effectively. Real Estate faculty members are expected to provide service to the Department and College, including leadership roles within the Real Estate Center and/or Masters in Real Estate program, currently under development. Additionally, faculty members are expected to engage actively in research and publication in their areas of primary teaching responsibility and provide service to the University and the community.

The successful candidate will be held to the standards and requirements of the college and department in which he/she is housed for recommending tenure and promotion.

Application Deadline:

Screening of applications will begin October 1, 2019. Priority will be given to applicants who meet the screening deadline; however, the position will remain open until filled.

How to Apply:

Applicants must submit a letter of application describing how they satisfy the qualifications listed above, curriculum vitae, and three current letters of recommendation to the Interfolio application web address below. In later phases of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide verification of terminal degrees, licenses and certificates.

This institution is using Interfolio's ByCommittee to conduct this search. Applicants to this position receive a free Dossier account and can send all application materials, including confidential letters of recommendation, free of charge to: <http://apply.interfolio.com/64873>
