7. Provide professional support in the preparation and administration of events relating to the project;
8. Engage local stakeholders for both outreach and output dissemination.

Candidate qualifications and qualities:

It is essential that candidates:

1. Are fluent in all aspects of the English language;
2. Hold a PhD (or equivalent) in a relevant field (preferably law-focussed) and from a recognized tertiary institution.

It is highly desirable if candidates also satisfy the following:

1. Can be based in Qatar full-time;
2. Have previously published in professional or peer reviewed journals (SCOPUS/ISI) in the field;
3. Have experience working in an academic environment;
4. Can work in an independent and disciplined manner;
5. Can effectively manage workflow and meet deadlines;
6. Are literate in IT-related matters;
7. Arabic proficiency is an advantage but not essential.

Remuneration and Conditions

Competitive remuneration packages (tax-free) including housing allowance, transport allowance, schooling allowance (for one child), and annual return tickets to home country (or equivalent) for candidates and their family (spouse and one child). The appointment is for 12 months (renewable for another 12 months subject to grant continuation and satisfactory performance).
