Job Description

The Indigenous Law Centre (ILC) at the College of Law, University of Saskatchewan is entering a new stage in its evolution. To assist in this evolution, the ILC is seeking a new Academic Director. The desired candidate will be an established or emerging legal scholar who already holds a tenure-track Faculty position at a Canadian law school. The successful applicant will be appointed Academic Director of the Indigenous Law Centre and as a Faculty Member of the College of Law at a rank dependent on their qualifications, experience and current academic rank.

The role of the Academic Director will be to help chart the direction of the ILC over the next several years. Working in close partnership with the Dean of Law, the Academic Director will assist in the following key tasks:

1. Lead in revising, updating and implementing the ILC Strategic Plan.
2. Work with the office of the Vice-Provost Indigenous Engagement on campus-wide Indigenization initiatives.
3. Work with the College of Law's Cultural Advisor on programming within the College.
4. Oversee the ongoing development and implementation of new Certificate Programs in Indigenous & Aboriginal Law.
- 5.

EEO/AA Policy

In consideration of the University's strategic directions, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion priorities, the requirements of the position, and pursuant to section 56 of the Saskatchewan Human Rights Code, only Indigenous applicants will be considered for this position. Indigenous Membership/Citizenship will be subject to verification with documentation.

Due to federal immigration requirements, we also ask candidates to indicate whether they are Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or are otherwise already authorized to work at this position for the duration of the appointment, with an explanation if this last category is indicated.

The University believes equity, diversity, and inclusion strengthen the community and enhance excellence, innovation, and creativity. We are dedicated to recruiting individuals who will enrich our work and learning environments. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University is committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion, and are proud to support career opportunities for Indigenous Peoples to reflect the community we serve. We continue to grow our partnerships with Indigenous communities across the Province, Nationally and Internationally and value the unique perspective that our Indigenous employees provide to strengthen these relationships. Only Indigenous candidates will be considered for this position. Candidates must meet all the essential qualifications required for this position, including verification of Indigenous Membership/Citizenship with documentation, and the successful candidate must maintain those conditions throughout their employment.
