Reporting to the Provost and serving as the chief academic officer of Tulane Law, the Dean will build on an exceptionally strong foundation to set strategic priorities and a vision for the future of the School. The Dean will harness the talent, creativity, and collegiality of the School's diverse community to continue on its trajectory as one of the nation's top law schools. The Dean will support and inspire a dynamic and accomplished faculty to continue innovative scholarship. The Dean will also identify new opportunities and meet emerging challenges in legal education. The Dean will continue to build partnerships and promote interdisciplinary efforts that serve the School's dual mission to educate students and serve the community. The School seeks an outstanding scholar-leader to build strong relationships, both internally and externally, and to compellingly represent the School to a variety of audiences, including students, faculty, alumni, community members, and other supporters.

Inquiries, Nominations, and Applications: Applicants should submit (in two separate PDFs) an up-to-date and detailed curriculum vitae and a letter of interest (2–4 pages) describing their interest in the role of Dean of Tulane Law and how their professional experience would make them a successful Dean. Tulane University has retained the services of Dr. Josh Ward at the executive search firm Korn Ferry. All inquiries, nominations, or applications (the two requested documents above) should be sent directly to Dr. Josh Ward at Josh.Ward@KornFerry.com or via phone at (405) 640-3994. For priority consideration, please submit all application materials by October 23, 2023.
