- Based at the School of Law, Adelaide CBD location
- Continuing Academic Level D/E (Associate Professor/Professor) appointment
- Senior research and academic position in Commercial, Corporate, Competition or Consumer Law

About the job

The University of South Australia Business School is the largest in South Australia and one of the premier business schools in the country. The School of Law forms part of the UniSA Business School and provides leading-edge legal education to suit the diverse needs of today's law students. The School operates a highly flexible trimester program and offers a comprehensive range of double degree options, as well as research degrees.

We are seeking to appoint a senior academic who can make outstanding contributions to all activities in the School of Law, and will play a strategic leadership role in scholarship through teaching, research and professional activities. With a strong academic track record in both teaching and research, the ideal candidate will bring a background in the areas of Commercial, Corporate, Competition or Consumer Law.

Skills and Experience

You will have a completed doctorate in Commercial Law or a relevant discipline, and capacity to provide academic leadership in both research and teaching programs through mentoring, supervision and leading teams in the context of a high-trust, high-performance academic culture. You will also have demonstrated experience leading research as evidenced by international publication and funding record which is as a result of developing and publishing high quality, high impact journal papers; writing research grants and generating research income.

A University of Enterprise

The University of South Australia (UniSA) is an innovative, outward-looking institution known for its strong and engaged research and its experientially-based teaching and learning that is conducted in close collaboration with business, industry, government and the professions.

In recent years, we have maintained a strong upward trajectory across a number of key indicators and are ranked among the world's top 50 young institutions. We are committed to international education activities and alumni, graduates who are equipped to meet the demands and expectations of the worldwide workforce, a culturally diverse staff and increasing student mobility.
